

2018 FEVS Definition of Senior Leader

Transcribed from a computer screenshot

“This is your nearest senior executive (SES, Director, or higher-level GS) in your organizational structure who is responsible for directing policies and priorities within the organization. Depending on the structure of the organization and your specific position, this could be one or more levels above you. May hold either a political or career appointment.”